His loving father who himself is a great singer will also be accompanying him.

PadmaShree Penaz Masani has also confirmed her availability for the same.

Based on our very heavy financial constraints and difficulties and also in view of the positive responses received from most of you, the central council has decided as per following :

- All participants and those accompanying them will make their own stay arrangements in New Delhi.
- While the number of participants recommended in the last letter was only 3 best participants. in view of own arrangements as above you can continue to follow our earlier practice of getting 6 best from each region irrespective of the category.
